BE it enacted by the Parliament of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka as follows:-

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Anti-Corruption Act, No. 9 of 2023.

Short title and

(2) The provisions of this Act other than this section, shall come into operation on such date as the Minister may by Order published in the Gazette appoint:

Provided however, every provision of this Act shall come into operation not later than eighteen months from the date of coming into operation of this section.

(3) The provisions of this section shall come into operation on the date on which the certificate of the Speaker is endorsed thereon in respect of this Act in terms of Article 79 of the Constitution.

Objects of the Act

- 2. (1) The objects of this Act shall be to-
- (a) prevent and eradicate bribery and corruption in order to meet the just requirements of the general welfare of a democratic society;
 - (b) enhance transparency in governance;
 - (c) strengthen integrity of governance and increase accountability;
 - (d) enhance public confidence in the Government and strengthen public participation to eradicate corruption;
 - (e) establish an Independent Commission, to exercise and perform the powers and functions under this Act and to carry out the responsibilities imposed thereon under this Act;
 - (f) mandate the said Commission to conduct preliminary inquiries and investigations into, and to prosecute against, bribery, corruption, offences relating to declaration of assets and liabilities and associated offences;
 - (g) to conduct and coordinate educational activities on the prevention of bribery and corruption;
 - (h) introduce an effective system for the declaration of assets and liabilities in order to prevent illicit enrichment by public officials;
 - (i) promote inter-agency cooperation and international collaboration in preventing bribery and corruption; and

- (j) give effect to obligations under the United Nations Convention against corruption and any other International Convention relating to the prevention of corruption to which Sri Lanka is a party and recognize international standards and best practices in order to establish a culture of integrity in Sri Lanka.

(2) For the purposes of this section, “governance” includes systems and processes that are designed to ensure accountability, transparency, responsiveness, rule of law and stability.

PART I

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE COMMISSION

3. (1) There shall be established, for the purposes of this Act, a Commission which shall be called and known as the Commission to Investigate Allegations of Bribery or Corruption (hereinafter referred to as the “Commission”).

Establishment of the Commission to Investigate Allegations of Bribery or Corruption

(2) The Commission shall, by the name assigned to it by subsection (1), be a body corporate and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal and may sue and be sued in such name.

(3) The Commission shall have powers specified in this Act for the accomplishment of the objects of this Act and for the exercise of powers and performance of functions and carry out the responsibilities conferred on it under this Act.

(4) The Commission shall exercise and perform its powers and functions without being subject to any direction or other interference proceeding from any other person except a court or tribunal entitled under law to direct or supervise the Commission in the exercise or performance of such powers or functions.

(5) Every person who, without legal authority, interferes or attempts to interfere with the exercise or performance of the powers or functions of the Commission as referred to in subsection (4) of this section shall be guilty of an offence punishable by the High Court on conviction after trial without a jury with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to a period of one year or with fine or with both such imprisonment and fine and may, in addition-

- (a) be disqualified for a period not exceeding seven years from the date of such conviction from being an elector and from voting-
 - (i) at a referendum;
 - (ii) at any election of the President of the Republic; or
 - (iii) at any election of a Member of Parliament, Provincial Council or any local authority; or
- (b) be disqualified from holding any public office or from being employed as a public officer.

Composition of the Commission

4. (1) The Commission shall consist of three members appointed by the President on the recommendation of the Constitutional Council from among the following:-

- (a) a person who has expertise, reached eminence and has at least twenty years of experience in law; and
- (b) two persons who have expertise, reached eminence and have at least twenty years of experience in one or more of the following fields:-
 - (i) investigation of crime and law enforcement;
 - (ii) forensic auditing;

- (iii) forensic accounting;

- (e) fails to comply with his obligations under the provisions of this Act;
- (f) is, or has been an elected representative to any political office; or
- (g) holds or has held any post or membership in any political party recognized for the purposes of presidential elections, parliamentary elections, provincial council elections, or any local government elections conducted under the provisions of respective laws applicable therefor.

Removal of a member of the Commission

6. (1) A member of the Commission shall not be removed from office except by an Order of the President made after an address of Parliament on a resolution for such an address, supported by a majority of the total number of Members of Parliament (including those not present) has been presented for such removal on the ground of proved misconduct or physical, mental or other incapacity of a permanent nature or a disqualification under section 5 of this Act:

Provided that no resolution for the presentation of such an address shall be entertained by the Speaker or placed on the Order Paper of Parliament, unless notice of such resolution is signed by not less than one-third of the total number of Members of Parliament and sets out full particulars of the alleged misconduct or incapacity.

(2) The procedure for the presentation and passing of an address of Parliament for the removal of a Judge of the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeal specified in paragraph (3) of Article 107 shall mutatis mutandis shall apply in all respects to the presentation and passing of an address of Parliament for the removal of a member of the Commission.

7. (1) A member of the Commission may at any time resign from his office by a letter addressed to the President in that behalf and such resignation shall take effect upon it being accepted by the President in writing.

Resignation of a member of the Commission

(2) The President shall on the recommendation of the Constitutional Council appoint a new member in place of the member who resigned, within two weeks of the resignation of such member.

8. (1) Every member of the Commission shall, unless such member earlier vacates office by death, resignation or removal, hold office for a period of three years and shall not be eligible for reappointment:

Term of office of the members of the Commission

Provided however, the members of the First Commission appointed under the provisions of this Act shall hold office from the date of appointment in the following manner:-

- (a) the Chairman shall hold office for a period of five years;
- (b) one other Commissioner other than the Chairman shall hold office for a period of four years; and
- (c) the remaining Commissioner shall hold office for a period of three years.

(2) Where a vacancy arises in the office of a member of the Commission due to the expiration of his period of office, such member shall continue in such office until a new member is appointed in his place by the President on the recommendation of the Constitutional Council within three months of the occurring of such vacancy.

Remuneration of the members of the Commission

9. The remunerations of the members of the Commission shall be-

- (a) determined by Parliament; and
- (b) charged on the Consolidated Fund and shall not be diminished during their terms of office.

Members of the Commission to disclose any interest

10. (1) A member of the Commission shall submit to the Constitutional Council, a general disclosure of his interests as at the date of such appointment before assuming office as such member.

(2) A member of the Commission who is directly or indirectly interested in any matter that is to be taken up before the Commission shall disclose the nature of such interest to the Commission and shall not take part in any deliberation or decision of the Commission with regard to that matter.

11. No act or decision or proceeding of the Commission shall be invalidated by reason only of the existence of a vacancy among the members or of any defect in the appointment of a member thereof.

Acts not invalidated by reason of a vacancy

12. (1) The seal of the Commission shall be in the custody of the Chairman of the Commission.

Seal of the Commission

(2) The seal of the Commission may be altered in such manner as may be determined by the Commission.

(3) The seal of the Commission shall not be affixed to any instrument or document except in the presence of a member of the Commission and the Director-General of the Commission or in the absence of the Director-General, in the presence of any two members of the Commission, who shall sign the instrument in token of their presence.

13. The Commission shall be responsible and answerable to Parliament for the discharge of its functions under the provisions of this Act and shall forward to Parliament in each calendar year reports relating to its activities during such year, in accordance with the provisions of section 159 of this Act.

Commission to be answerable to Parliament

14. (1) The quorum of the Commission to exercise its powers and discharge its functions under section 41 and subsection (1) of section 65 shall be two members.

(2) The Director-General on vacating office at the expiration of the period of office shall continue to function in his capacity as Director-General until a new Director-General is appointed.

(3) The President shall on the recommendation of the Constitutional Council appoint a new Director-General, within three months of such expiration.

Remuneration of the Director-General

24. The remuneration of the Director-General shall be determined by Parliament, shall be charged on the Consolidated Fund and shall not be diminished during his period of service with the Commission.

Director-General may delegate powers

25. (1) The Director-General may delegate to any other competent officer appointed under the provisions of this Act to assist the Commission any power, function, or duty of the Director-General except the power of delegation conferred on him by this section and the powers and functions under paragraphs (a) and (c) of section 18 and such other officer may exercise those powers and perform such functions and discharge such duties subject to the control and supervision of the Director-General.

(2) In the event the office of the Director-General becomes vacant due to death, resignation, removal or dismissal, the powers, functions, or duties of the Director-General shall be delegated to any other competent officer appointed under the provisions of this Act to assist the Commission by the President in Consultation with the Commission until a new appointment is made within three months of such vacancy under section 22.

Officers and employees of the Commission

26. (1) The Commission may subject to the rules made under this Act appoint such other officers and employees as it may deem necessary for the efficient discharge of its functions.

(2) The officers and employees appointed under subsection (1) shall be remunerated in such manner and at such rates and shall be subject to such conditions of service as may be determined by the Commission in consultation with the Minister assigned the subject of Finance and approved by Parliament and the remuneration paid to them shall be charged on the Consolidated Fund.

(3) The persons whose services are retained under section 27 shall be remunerated in such manner and at such rates and shall be subject to such conditions of service as may be determined by the Commission and the remuneration shall be charged on the Fund of the Commission.

(4) At the request of the Commission any member of the Local Government Service constituted under Local Government Service Law, No. 16 of 1974 or any other officer or official of a local authority, may, with the consent of such member or officer and the Local Government Service Commission established by section 3 of the Local Government Service Law, No. 16 of 1974, or the local authority, as the case may be, be temporarily appointed to the staff of the Commission for such period as may be determined by the Commission with like consent or be permanently appointed to such staff on such terms and conditions including those relating to pension or provident fund rights as may be agreed upon by the Commission and the Local Government Service Commission or that local authority as the case may be.

(5) At the request of the Commission any officer in the public service may, with the consent of such officer and the Public Service Commission and the appointing authority of such officer be temporarily appointed to the Commission for such period as may be determined by the Commission with like consent, or be permanently appointed to such staff.

(6) Where any officer in the Public Service is temporally appointed to the staff of the Commission, the provisions of subsection (2) of section 14 of the National Transport Commission Act, No. 37 of 1991, shall mutatis mutandis apply to and in relation to such officer.

(7) Where any officer in the Public Service is permanently appointed to the staff of the Commission, the provisions of subsection (3) of section 14 of the National Transport Commission Act, No. 37 of 1991, shall mutatis mutandis apply to and in relation to such officer.

(8) At the request of the Commission any officer or employee of a public corporation may, with the consent of such officer or employee and the governing board of such corporation, be temporarily appointed to the staff of the Commission for such period as may be determined by the Commission with like consent or be permanently appointed to the staff of the Commission on such terms and conditions, including those relating to pension or provident fund rights, as may be agreed upon by the Commission and the governing board of such corporation.

(9) At the request of the Commission any member of the Sri Lanka State Audit Service established under section 30 of the National Audit Act, No. 19 of 2018, may with the consent of such member and the Audit Service Commission be temporarily appointed to the staff of the Commission for such period as may be determined by the Commission with like consent or be permanently appointed to the staff of the Commission on such terms and conditions, including those relating to pension or provident fund rights, as may be agreed upon by the Commission and the Audit Service Commission.

Commission to obtain services of other personnel

27. The Commission may obtain the services of such other officers and employees on fixed-term contracts as it considers necessary for the proper and effective performance of its powers and functions.

28. (1) Any member of the Commission, the Director-General or any officer or employee of the Commission or any other person whose services are retained under section 27 shall not disclose any information received by him, or coming to his knowledge, in the exercise and the discharge of his powers and functions under this Act, except for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act or where provision has been made under this Act to share information.

Declaration to be signed before entering upon duties

(2) Every member of the Commission, the Director-General and every officer or employee of the Commission or any other person whose services are retained under section 27 shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, sign a declaration to the effect that he will not disclose any information received by him, or coming to his knowledge, in the exercise and the discharge of his powers and functions under this Act, except for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), the Director-General may, subject to the provisions of subsection (1) of section 5 of the Right to Information Act, No. 12 of 2016 and with the permission of the Commission, disclose such information as the Commission considers necessary in the public interest, for the purposes of publication in the press, media and social media with a view of enhancing the transparency and accountability of the Commission towards the public.

29. (1) The members of the Commission, the Director-General and officers and employees of the Commission and any other person whose services are retained under section 27 shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Penal Code (Chapter 19) and every investigation conducted under this Act shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of the Penal Code (Chapter 19).

Members of the Commission, etc. deemed to be public servants

(2) The Director-General and every officer of the Commission shall be deemed to be peace officers within the meaning of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979.

Protection for actions

30. (1) No proceedings, civil or criminal, shall be instituted against a member of the Commission, the Director-General or any officer or employee of the Commission, or any other person whose services are retained under section 27 or against any other person assisting the Commission in any way, other than for contempt, for any act which is done or omitted to be done, in good faith by him in his capacity as such member of the Commission, Director-General, officer or employee of the Commission, a person whose services are retained under section 27 or a person assisting the Commission, in the execution of their duties.

(2) A member of the Commission or the Director-General or any officer or employee of the Commission or any person whose services are retained under section 27 shall not be required to produce in any court, any document received by, or to disclose to any court, any matter or thing, coming to the notice of the Commission in the course of any investigation conducted by the Commission under this Act, except as may be necessary for the purposes of proceedings before a court of law for contempt or for an offence under this Act or for an offence under Chapter XI of the Penal Code (Chapter 19).

(3) No proceedings, civil or criminal, shall be instituted in any court against any member of the Commission in respect of any report made by the Commission under this Act or against any other person in respect of the publication by such person of a substantially true account of such report.

CHAPTER III

- (b) upon receipt of a complaint;
- (c) ex mero motu by the Commission; or
- (d) based on any other material received by the Commission, in relation to the commission of any act which may disclose the commission of an offence referred to in section 41.

(2) The purpose of conducting a preliminary inquiry shall be to determine whether there exist reasonable grounds to believe that an offence under the provisions of this Act has been committed.

(3) After the conduct of a preliminary inquiry, if the Commission is satisfied that an offence referred to in section 41 has been committed, the Commission shall direct the Director-General to conduct an investigation:

Provided that, if the Commission is satisfied that there exist reasonable grounds to believe the committing of an offence referred to in section 41, the Commission may authorize the conduct of an investigation without the conduct of a preliminary inquiry.

(4) The purpose of the investigation conducted by the Commission under subsection (3) is to-

- (a) determine whether an offence referred to in section 41 has been committed;
- (b) identify and trace witnesses to the commission of any offence referred to in paragraph (a) and any other relevant facts;
- (c) trace, interview, and record the statements of persons who may be acquainted with facts and circumstances pertaining to the committing of an offence referred to in section 41;
- (d) collect documents and material that has the potential of being converted into evidence in criminal proceedings;
- (e) determine the identity of persons who have committed an offence referred to in section 41;
- (f) trace, arrest, interview, and record the statement of any person who has committed an offence referred to in section 41;
- (g) determine whether to institute criminal proceedings or take any other lawful action against any person, for any offence referred to in section 41; or

(h) take any other appropriate measure provided for in this Act.

(5) On any information or a complaint received by the Commission, or if decided ex mero motu by the Commission, or on any other material received by the Commission, if the Commission is satisfied of the likelihood of an offence referred to in section 41 being committed, it may take measures as may be necessary to detect the committing of such offence and make investigations thereto.

(6) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act or any other written law, where the Commission, on a consideration of material collected in the course of an investigation or inquiry or both an investigation and inquiry as the case may be by a Commission of Inquiry appointed under the Commissions of Inquiry Act (Chapter 393) or by a Commission appointed under the Special Presidential Commissions of Inquiry Law, No. 7 of 1978, is satisfied that an offence referred to in section 41 has been committed, it shall direct the Director-General to institute criminal proceedings against the person or persons alleged to have committed such offence in terms of this Act.

(7) The Commission may prior to the institution of proceedings under subsection (6), direct to-

- (a) conduct further investigations into the commission of any such offence;
- (b) consider material that may have been collected in the course of an investigation conducted by the Commission prior to the receipt of the material referred to in subsection (6); and

(c) consider the material the Commission may have received from any other law enforcement authority.

(8) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act or any other written law, the Commission may, if it deems appropriate, forward the material collected and received under subsections (1), (3), (5), (6) and (7) to the Attorney-General or to any other authority to take any appropriate action under any other written law.

(9) The Commission shall not be required, unless it deems appropriate to, record a statement of a person who has given a statement to a Commission of Inquiry or to a Special Presidential Commission of Inquiry or has given evidence before any such Commission.

(10) The Commission shall have the power to investigate any matter disclosed by a communication received by it under subsection (1) whether or not such matter relates to a period prior to the appointed date and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other law.

(11) If the Commission decides not to act according to the provisions of subsections (1), (3), (5) or (6) of this section, reasons for such decision shall be recorded in writing and be communicated by the Commission to the person who made the complaint.

43. (1) A complaint or information relating to the commission of an offence referred to in section 41, may be made against a person whether or not such person is holding, on the date on which the complaint or information is received by the Commission, the office or employment by virtue of holding which he is alleged to have committed the act constituting an offence. Such complaint or information may be provided to the Commission orally, in writing or by electronic communication.

Complaints of offences

(2) The complaint given orally shall be reduced to writing in the language it was given, by any officer of the Commission as directed by the Commission as soon as possible:

Provided that, if it is not possible for the officer to record the complaint in the language in which it is given, the officer shall request that the complaint be given in writing. If the complainant is unable to give it in writing, the officer shall record the complaint in one of the national languages after recording the reasons for doing so and shall read over the record to the complainant or interpret it in the language such person understands.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, a public authority or a law enforcement authority, where in the exercise of its functions is of the opinion that an offence under the provisions of this Act may have occurred or suspected to have committed, such public authority or the law enforcement authority shall refer the matter to the Commission for investigation.

Complainant
may know
the progress

44. (1) Any person who has made a complaint under section 43 shall be provided with an update of the basic steps taken in relation to an investigation conducted under section 42 in a manner which does not hinder the progress of the investigation.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) of section 5 of the Right to Information Act, No. 12 of 2016 shall apply for any information provided, shared or communicated as provided for in this Act.

(3) Any person who has made a complaint under section 43 shall be provided with a detailed justification by the Commission for the closure of a file, upon a request made on that behalf by such person.

45. (1) If the Commission is satisfied—

Search and seizure

- (a) that there is a reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence referred to in section 41 has been committed and that evidence of the commission of the offence is to be found at any premises or in any vessel, vehicle or aircraft or with any person; or
- (b) that any book, account or other document or thing which ought to have been produced during an investigation conducted by it under this Act and have not been so produced are to be found at such premises or in any such vehicle, vessel or aircraft or with any person, the Commission may by written order, authorize an officer of the Commission to enter such premises or, such vehicle, vessel or aircraft as the case may be and search such premises, or such vehicle, vessel, aircraft or such person.

(2) An officer authorized by the Commission under subsection (1) may seize any article, which is found in the premises or in the vehicle, vessel or aircraft or with the person and which he has reasonable grounds for believing to be evidence of the commission of any offence under this Act, or any book, account or document or thing which he has reasonable grounds for believing, ought to have been produced at an investigation conducted by the Commission under this Act and every such article, book, account, document or thing seized by such officer in pursuance of the powers conferred on him by this section shall be produced by him before the Commission:

Provided that, no female shall, in pursuance of a search under this section, be searched except by a female.

(3) Where, by virtue of this section a person has any power to enter into any premises, vessel, vehicle or aircraft, he may use such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose of exercising that power.

(4) A list of all items seized pursuant to the preceding provisions of this section and of the places in which they are respectively found shall be prepared by the officer of the Commission effecting the seizure and be signed by him.

(5) A copy of the list referred to in the above subsection shall be served on the owner of such property or on the person from whom the property was seized as soon as possible.

(6) Where any movable property liable to seizure as stipulated above is in the possession, custody or control of a bank, the provisions of subsections (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6) of section 49 shall apply thereto.

(7) The Director-General or an officer authorized by the Commission may with such assistance as may be necessary, enter and search any department, office or establishment of the Government to give effect to the provisions of this section.

(8) The Director-General or any officer of the Commission may obtain the assistance of any public officer or any other person authorized by the Commission for assistance in the exercise of his powers or the discharge of his functions under this Act.

(9) Any officer authorized under subsection (1) shall always carry the warrant card issued to such officer under section 46 where any power under this section is exercised.

Issuance of
warrant cards

46. The Director-General shall issue to any officer of the Commission a warrant card which shall be prima facie evidence of the authorization granted to such officer under section 45.

47. (1) Any authorized officer of the Commission may without an order from a Magistrate and without a warrant arrest any person suspected of committing an offence under the provisions of this Act if such person—

Arrest of persons without a warrant etc.

- (a) in his presence commits any offence under this Act;
- (b) has been concerned in any offence under this Act or against whom a reasonable complaint has been made or credible information has been received or a reasonable suspicion exists, of his having been so concerned;
- (c) obstructs an officer employed by the Commission while in the execution of his duty or has escaped or attempts to escape from lawful custody;
- (d) is found taking precautions to conceal his presence under circumstances which afford reason to believe that he is taking such precautions with a view to committing an offence under this Act; or
- (e) has been concerned in or against whom a reasonable complaint has been made or credible information has been received or a reasonable suspicion exists of his having been concerned in any act committed at any place out of Sri Lanka, which if committed in Sri Lanka would have been punishable as an offence under this Act and for which he is under any law for the time being in force relating to extradition or to fugitive persons or otherwise, liable to be apprehended or detained in custody in Sri Lanka.

(2) In making an arrest under subsection (1), the officer making the same shall actually touch or confine the body of the person to be arrested unless there be a submission to the custody by word or action and shall inform the person to be arrested, of the nature of the charge or allegation upon which he is arrested and the keeping of a person in confinement or restraint without formally arresting him or under the colourable pretension that an arrest has not been made when to all intents and purposes such person is in custody, shall be deemed to be an arrest of such person.

(3) If such person forcibly resists the endeavour to arrest him or attempts to evade the arrest, the officer making the arrest may use such means as are reasonably necessary to effect the arrest.

(4) If the officer making the arrest has reasons to believe that any person to be arrested has entered into or is within any place, the person residing in or in charge of such place shall on demand of such officer allow him free ingress therein and afford all reasonable facilities for a search therein.

(5) If ingress to such place cannot be obtained under the preceding subsection it shall be lawful in any case for the officer acting under a warrant or in any case in which a warrant may issue but cannot be obtained without affording the person to be arrested an opportunity of escape, for the officer to enter such place and search therein.

(6) The officer may break open any outer or inner door or window of any place in order to liberate himself or any other person who, having lawfully entered for the purpose of making an arrest, is detained therein.

(7) The person arrested shall not be subjected to more restraint than is necessary to prevent his escape.

(8) Anything in this section shall not be held to interfere with or modify the operation of any enactment empowering an officer to arrest without a warrant.

48. (1) An officer making an arrest without a warrant shall without unnecessary delay and subject to the provisions herein contained as to bail, take steps to produce the person arrested before the nearest Magistrate.

Procedure after arrest

(2) Any officer shall not detain in custody or otherwise confine a person arrested without a warrant for a longer period than under all the circumstances of the case is reasonable, and such period shall not exceed twenty-four hours exclusive of the time necessary for the journey from the place of arrest to the Magistrate.

(3) Where a person arrested was produced before a Magistrate other than the Magistrate who has the jurisdiction in the case, the Magistrate before whom the person was produced shall, subject to section 149 and having considered the circumstances of the investigation, order to produce the person arrested before the Magistrate having jurisdiction in the case forthwith.

(4) If a person in lawful custody escapes or is rescued, the officer from whose custody he escaped or was rescued may immediately pursue and arrest him in any place, either within or outside the jurisdiction where he was so in custody, and provision of section 47 shall apply to such arrest.

(5) Where any currency notes, alleged to have been accepted, solicited or offered as an illegal gratification by the person arrested are produced before the Magistrate having jurisdiction in the case together with a report under the hand of the Director-General, stating that such notes were alleged to have been so accepted, solicited or offered, the Magistrate shall issue a certificate under his hand to the effect that the notes of the denominations and numbers set out in the certificate were produced before him and such certificate shall be admissible in any proceedings instituted against the person alleged to have accepted, solicited or offered such notes, in lieu of producing such notes in such proceedings.

Examination of persons when conducting an investigation

49. (1) The Commission may, in conducting an investigation under section 42–

- (a) procure and receive all such evidence, written or oral, and examine all such persons as the Commission may think necessary or desirable to procure, receive or examine:

Provided, the Commission may video record the examination of any person under the provisions of this paragraph;

- (b) require any person to attend before the Commission for the purposes of being examined by the Commission and to answer, orally on oath or affirmation, any question put to him by the Commission relevant, in the opinion of the Commission, to the matters under investigation or require such person to state any facts relevant to the matters under investigation in the form of an affidavit;
- (c) summon any person to produce any document or other thing in his possession or control;
- (d) direct by notice in writing any bank, a non-banking financial institution, or designated non-finance business to produce, within such time as may be specified in the notice, any information in whatsoever form relating to the account of any person in respect of whom any inquiry or investigation is being conducted under section 42 or of any person associated with such person, or of a company of which such person is a director, or of a trust in which such person has a beneficial interest or of a firm of which such person is a partner, or to furnish as so specified, certified copies of such information therein which is in printable form;
- (e) notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (d), require any bank, non-banking financial institution, or designated non-finance business to provide following information and material to the Commission subject to the provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, No. 5 of 2006 and Financial Transactions Reporting Act, No. 6 of 2006, relating to–

- (i) any financial service provided by such bank, institution or business, to any person;
 - (ii) details of any financial transaction carried out by any person;
 - (iii) details of any bank accounts, deposits, remittances, and withdrawals and financial services provided by any such bank, institution or business;
 - (iv) details in respect of securing of financial services by any person; and
 - (v) a certified statement of any account or other details pertaining to any account or transaction;
- (f) notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (d), require from the following officers any information or document which is in his possession or under his control or a certified copy thereof or any entry therein for the purpose of conducting an investigation under the provisions of this Act or in respect of an associated offence referred to in this Act:-
- (i) the Secretary to any Ministry appointed under Article 52 of the Constitution;
 - (ii) Secretary General of the Parliament of Sri Lanka appointed under Article 65 of the Constitution;
 - (iii) Commissioner General of Inland Revenue appointed under section 97 of the Inland Revenue Act, No. 24 of 2017;

- (iv) Governor of the Central Bank appointed under section 12 of the Monetary Law Act (Chapter 422);
- (v) Auditor General appointed under Article 153 of the Constitution;
- (vi) Head of the Department of Foreign Exchange of the Central Bank appointed under section 33 of the Monetary Law Act (Chapter 422);
- (vii) Director of the Financial Intelligence Unit appointed in terms of the Financial Transactions Reporting Act, No. 6 of 2006;
- (viii) Director-General of the Securities and Exchange Commission of Sri Lanka appointed under section 19 of the Securities and Exchange Commission of Sri Lanka Act, No. 19 of 2021;
- (ix) Director-General of Customs appointed under section 2 of the Customs Ordinance (Chapter 235);
- (x) Controller of Immigration and Emigration appointed under section 4 of the Immigrants and Emigrants Act (Chapter 351);
- (xi) Commissioner General for the Registration of Persons appointed under section 3 of the Registration of Persons Act, No. 32 of 1968;
- (xii) Controller of Imports and Exports appointed under section 2 of the Imports and Exports (Control) Act, No. 1 of 1969;
- (xiii) Registrar General of Companies appointed under section 47 of the Companies Act, No. 07 of 2007;

- (xiv) Commissioner of Land appointed under section 3 of the Land Development Ordinance (Chapter 464);
 - (xv) Director-General of Intellectual Property of Sri Lanka appointed under section 2 of the Intellectual Property Act, No. 36 of the 2003;
 - (xvi) Commissioner General of Motor Traffic appointed under section 204 of the Motor Traffic Act, (Chapter 203);
 - (xvii) Director-General of Telecommunications appointed under section 22B of the Sri Lanka Telecommunications Act, No. 25 of 1991;
 - (xviii) a Head of any Government department, public corporation, statutory body, or other Government institution;
 - (xix) Registrar – General of Lands appointed under section 2 of Registration of Documents Ordinance (Chapter 117);
 - (xx) Chairman of a Provincial Council or a Chairman or a Special Commissioner of a local authority;
 - (xxi) the Head of any scheduled institution under this Act;
- (g) direct any person in respect of whom a communication has been received under section 42 to furnish a sworn statement in writing-
- (i) setting out all movable or immovable property owned or possessed at any time, or at such time as may be specified by the Commission, by such person and by any other person associated with such person and specifying the date on which each of the properties so set out was acquired, whether by way of purchase, gift, bequest, inheritance or otherwise; and

- (ii) containing particulars of such other matters which in the opinion of the Commission are relevant to the investigation;
- (h) direct any person other than the persons specified in paragraphs (f) and (g) above to furnish a sworn statement in writing-
- (i) setting out all movable or immovable property owned or possessed at any time or at such time as may be specified by the Commission, by such person where the Commission has reasonable grounds to believe that such information can assist an investigation conducted by the Commission under section 42; and
 - (ii) containing particulars of such other matters which in the opinion of the Commission are relevant to such investigation:

Provided that, any person to whom the Commission issues any direction under this subsection shall comply with such direction, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other law.

(2) Where the Commission is satisfied of any information given by an officer of the Commission that any movable property, including any monetary instrument or any accretion thereto, which is the subject matter of an offence under this Act or evidence in relation to the commission of such offence, is in the possession, custody or control of a bank, the Commission may, notwithstanding anything contained in any other written law, by order direct the bank not to part with, deal in, or otherwise dispose of such property or any part thereof for a period not exceeding three months.

(3) An order under subsection (2) may include freezing of bank accounts or freezing of other financial deposits and accounts suspected to contain proceeds of bribery to the extent of the proceeds of bribery contained therein, under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 53, subject to any condition that may be imposed by rules made in that behalf by the Commission.

(4) A bank or any agent or employee of a bank shall not, on account of such compliance envisaged in subsection (2), be liable to any prosecution under any other law or to any proceeding or claim by any other person under any other law or under any contract, agreement, or arrangement, or otherwise.

(5) On the conclusion of any investigation conducted under this Act, the Commission may award to any person who has been in any way implicated or concerned in the matter under investigation or to any bank whose manager has complied with a notice issued in connection with such investigation by the Commission such sum of money as the Commission may consider sufficient to meet the costs and expenses which may have been reasonably incurred by such person or bank in connection with the investigation.

(6) All moneys awarded under subsection (5) shall be paid out of the Fund of the Commission.

(7) Any person who appears before the Commission under this section is bound to answer truly all questions relating to such case put to him by the officers of the Commission other than the questions which would have a tendency to expose him to a criminal charge or to a penalty or forfeiture.

Obtaining the assistance of experts

50. (1) Where the Commission considers that the examination of any person by the Government Analyst, a Government Medical Practitioner, or any other local or foreign expert is necessary for the conduct of an investigation, the Commission may—

- (a) summon the person to be examined with the consent of such person, to be subject to an examination conducted by the Government Analyst, any other local or foreign expert having expertise in the field in respect of which the investigation is conducted, or a Government Medical Practitioner; and
- (b) require in writing from any expert referred to in paragraph (a) to provide a report on a matter referred to him by the Commission.

(2) Where the person referred to in subsection (1) does not consent to being so examined, the Commission may apply to the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the investigation is being carried out for an order authorizing the expert named therein to examine such person and report thereon. Where such an order is made, the person referred to in subsection (1) shall submit himself to an examination by such expert who shall submit a report to the Magistrate setting out the result of such examination.

Taking of finger impressions, photographs, non-intimate samples, blood samples and voice samples etc.

51. (1) Where a person has been arrested under section 47 or, has been served with summons under section 49, any authorized officer of the Commission may take, or cause to be taken blood samples, voice samples, photographs, finger, palm or foot impressions or impression of any part of the body and the weight and height measurements of that person.

(2) The identifying particulars of a person taken under subsection (1) may be retained by the Commission, except that if-

- (a) a decision is taken not to charge the person with any offence; or
- (b) the person is charged with an offence under this Act but discharged by a court before conviction or acquitted at his trial or on appeal, the identifying particulars, together with any negatives or copies thereof, shall as soon as reasonably practicable be destroyed or, if the person so prefers, delivered to the person.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), the Commission may retain the identifying particulars of a person who has been previously convicted of any offence under this Act.

(4) In any investigation in respect of an offence committed or believed to have been committed under this Act, a non-intimate sample may be taken from a person for forensic analysis only if-

- (a) that person is dealt with and detained pursuant to the provisions of this Act; and
- (b) an officer not below the rank of a Deputy Director-General or above (hereinafter referred to as the “authorizing officer”) has authorized such taking.

(5) An authorizing officer may give his authorization as required under paragraph (b) of subsection (4) only if he has reasonable grounds-

- (a) for suspecting that the person from whom the non-intimate sample is to be taken has committed an offence under this Act; and

- (b) to believe that the sample will tend to confirm or disprove the commission of such offence.

(6) An authorizing officer shall give his authorization in writing and in practical difficulty, may give such authorization orally and as soon as possible confirm it in writing.

(7) Where an authorization has been given under subsection (5), officer who has been empowered with such authorization shall, before the taking of such non-intimate sample, inform the person from whom the sample is to be taken-

- (a) of the nature of the offence in which the person is suspected to have committed;
- (b) that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the sample will tend to confirm or disapprove the commission of the offence by that person;
- (c) of the authorization;
- (d) that he may or may not consent to the taking of the sample; and
- (e) that the sample will be analyzed and the information derived from such analysis may provide evidence that might be used in criminal proceedings for such offence or any other offence for which the person may be arrested under this Act.

(8) Where a person does not consent to the taking of a blood sample, finger, palm or foot impression or an impression of any part of the body under subsection (1) or the taking of a non-intimate sample under subsection (4), the Commission may apply to the Magistrate for an order for the taking of the same from him.

(9) The person from whom a non-intimate sample was taken under subsection (4) is entitled to be informed of the results derived from the analysis of the sample.

(10) Any consent given for the taking of a non-intimate sample under this section shall be given in writing and signed by the person giving the consent.

(11) Where an order under subsection (8) is made, the results shall be reported to the Magistrate by the Commission.

(12) A non-intimate sample from a person may only be taken by a registered Medical Practitioner.

(13) The Minister shall make regulations in consultation with the Commission on the privacy and the limitations on the use of non-intimate samples and results of forensic analysis and the disposal of relevant samples and records.

52. (1) Every Magistrate to whom an application is made under section 50, subsection (8) of section 51 or section 59 shall assist the conduct of an investigation by making and issuing appropriate orders and processes of court and may, in particular hold, or authorize the holding of, an identification parade for the purpose of ascertaining the identity of the offender, and may for such purpose require a suspect or other person to participate in such parade, to enable or allow a witness to make his identification from a concealed position and make or cause to be made a record of the proceedings of such parade.

Obtaining the assistance of Magistrates

(2) Confidentiality in respect of any application made to the Magistrate under subsection (1) shall be maintained and the proceedings pertaining to the same shall be held in-camera if requested by the Commission subject to such considerations as may be necessary for the purposes of justice and not to jeopardize the integrity of any investigation in respect of which the assistance of the Magistrate is sought.

53. (1) The Commission may—

Restraining orders

(a) prohibit, by written order (hereinafter referred to as the “freezing order”), any person in respect of whom an inquiry or investigation is being conducted under section 42, the spouse, other family member of such person or any other person holding any property in trust for such first-mentioned person, or any bank or any non banking financial institution or designated non finance business in possession, custody or control of any of his movable property or a company of which he is a director or a firm in which he is a partner, from parting with, dealing with or otherwise disposing of such property or any part thereof, from transferring the ownership of, or any interest in, any movable or immovable property specified in such order, until such time such order is revoked by the Commission and to cause a copy of the freezing order to be served on any such authority as the Commission may think fit, including–

- (i) the Registrar of Lands where the immovable property is situated in the case of an immovable property;
 - (ii) the Commissioner of Motor Traffic appointed under section 204 of the Motor Traffic Act (Chapter 203) in the case of a motor vehicle; and
 - (iii) the Registrar-General of Companies appointed under section 471 of the Companies Act, No. 07 of 2007 and the Secretary of such company in the case of shares, stocks or debentures of any company;
- (b) require, by written order, any authority on whom a copy of the freezing order made under paragraph (a) has been served, to cause such copy to be registered or filed in any register or record maintained by such authority;
- (c) require by written order the Controller of Immigration and Emigration appointed under section 4 of the Immigrants and Emigrants Act (Chapter 351) to impound the passport and other travel documents or to take all such steps as may be necessary to prevent the departure from Sri Lanka of any person in respect of whom an information or a complaint or a communication has been received under section 42 for such period not exceeding three months, as may be specified in such written order; and

- (d) require by written order, any police officer as shall be specified in that order, whether by name or by office, to take all such steps as may be necessary to prevent the departure from Sri Lanka of any person in respect of whom any information or complaint has been received under section 42 for such period not exceeding three months, as may be specified in such order.

(2) The Commission shall, within seven days during which such freezing order shall be in force, make an application to the High Court seeking confirmation of such freezing order and also if the circumstances so necessitate, request an extension of the original period of seven days.

(3) Where the High Court is satisfied that there are sufficient reasons for the making of such freezing order, the High Court may confirm the freezing order and also where an application is made for the extension thereof, grant the extension for such periods as it considers necessary, subject however –

- (a) to any other orders which may be made by the High Court; and
- (b) to the requirement that the maximum period of any extension so granted shall not exceed one year from the date of the obtaining of the freezing order by the Commission:

Provided that, where an indictment is filed for an offence under this Act, the freezing order shall unless vacated by the High Court for reasons to be recorded, remain in force until the conclusion of the trial in respect of such offence, or where an appeal is preferred against a conviction for such offence, until the determination of the appeal.

(4) Where the High Court confirms a freezing order under subsection (3), it shall cause a notice of such order to be published in at least one newspaper circulating in the Sinhala, Tamil and English languages, in order to facilitate bona fide third parties to make application to the High Court in support of their claims to the account, property or investment which is subject to the order of freezing.

(5) Where any movable property is seized under this Act, the seizure shall be effected by removing the movable property from the possession, custody or control of the person from whom it is seized and placing it under the custody of such person or authority and at such place as may be determined by the Commission:

Provided however, where it appears to the satisfaction of the Commission that it is not practicable, or is not desirable, to effect removal of any property under this subsection, the Commission may leave it at the premises in which it is seized under the custody of an authorized officer of the Commission.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (5), when any movable property, including any movable property referred to in subsection (10), has been seized under this Act, an authorized officer of the Commission other than the officer who effected the seizure, may-

- (a) temporarily return the movable property to the owner thereof, or to the person from whose possession, custody or control it was seized, or to such person as may be entitled thereto, subject to such terms and conditions as may be imposed, and subject in any case to sufficient security being furnished to ensure that the movable property shall be surrendered on the demand being made by the officer who authorized the release and that such terms and conditions, if any, shall be complied with; or

- (b) return the movable property to the owner thereof, or to the person from whose possession, custody or control it was seized, or to such person as may be entitled thereto, with liberty for the person to whom the movable property is so returned to dispose of the property, such return being subject to security being furnished in an amount not less than an amount which represents the open market value of such property on the date on which it is so returned.

(7) Where any person to whom movable property is temporarily returned fails to surrender such property on demand or comply with any term or condition imposed under that paragraph,-

- (a) the security furnished in respect of such property shall be forfeited; and
- (b) that person shall commit an offence punishable with imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years or a fine not exceeding one million rupees.

(8) Where an order of forfeiture of security is made by the court in respect of property temporarily returned as specified in subsection (7), such forfeiture shall be effected by forfeiting the security furnished by the person to whom the property was returned.

(9) When any movable property seized under this Act consists of money, shares, securities, stocks, debentures or any choose-in-action in the possession or under the custody or control of any person other than the person against whom the prosecution is intended to be taken, the seizure shall be effected by an authorized officer of the Commission serving an order on such other person-

- (a) prohibiting him from using, transferring, or dealing with such property; or
- (b) requiring him to surrender the property to the Commission in the manner and within the time specified in the order.

(10) Where any movable property seized or freezed is liable to speedy decay or deterioration, or cannot be maintained without difficulty, or is not practicable to be maintained, and cannot be dealt with under subsection (6), upon an application made in that regard by the Director-General or any officer authorized by the Commission, the High Court may make order to sell or cause to be sold the property and to hold the proceeds of the sale in the manner as may be determined by such Court:

Provided that the High Court may order to deduct any cost or expense of the maintenance and sale of property from the proceeds of any proceedings under this Act.

(11) A transaction shall not be effected in relation to any account, property or investment where a freezing order is in force and any transaction which is so effected shall be null and void.

(12) Before making a freezing order under this section, the High Court may on an application made in that behalf, if the High Court is of the opinion that such an order may damage the legitimate business or any other interest of any person affected by such freezing order, make order permitting any essential transaction relating to such account, property or investment to be carried out subject to such supervision and under the direction of an officer authorized by the Commission as may be directed by such court.

Prohibition of dealing with property outside Sri Lanka

54. Where the Commission is satisfied that any property is the subject matter of an offence under this Act or was used in the commission of any such offence, and such property is held or deposited outside Sri Lanka, the Commission may make an application to the High Court for an order prohibiting the person by whom the property is held or with whom it is deposited from dealing with the property.

- (c) any information, data or document or record that may be stored, archived or otherwise kept, by such service provider; and

- (d) information pertaining to the uploading or downloading of data or information, to or from any instrument through the service provided by such service provider, where in the opinion of the Commission such information may be of use in the investigations conducted on any act which may amount to an offence under this Act.

Interception of communication

58. (1) An authorized officer of the Commission may apply in writing to the High Court for a warrant authorizing the covert monitoring of any conduct and recording of any communication if such officer has reasonable grounds to suspect or believe that a person has committed, is committing or is about to commit an offence under this Act.

(2) A High Court Judge may, upon receiving a written application under subsection (1), issue a warrant after being satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for such suspicion or belief to authorize the covert monitoring and recording, by any means, of the conduct and communications, including telecommunications, of the person. Confidentiality in respect of any application made to the High Court shall be maintained and the proceedings pertaining to the same shall be held ex parte and in-camera.

(3) A warrant issued under this section may be renewed by further application made in that behalf by the authorized officer.

(4) A warrant issued under this section may authorize any officer-

- (a) to overtly or covertly enter or, in the case of a renewed warrant, re-enter any place specified in the warrant, by force if necessary, for the purpose of executing the warrant; and

(b) in the case of a renewed warrant, to continue monitoring and recording pursuant to the original warrant.

(5) If the circumstances are such that a written application under subsection (1) is not reasonably practicable, an oral application may be made.

(6) The format of the application shall be as specified by the Commission by way of rules.

(7) The Commission shall ensure that any recording made under the provisions of this Act shall be used solely for the purposes of this Act.

59. Director-General may, for the purpose of–

Unlocking of data and information

- (a) determining the identity of a person who has committed an offence;

- (iv) to permanently refrain from holding public office, both elected and appointed.

(4) If such person fulfills the conditions imposed under subsection (3), during the period stipulated for fulfilling such conditions, the Director-General shall not present a fresh indictment against the accused thereafter on the same charges specified in the original indictment.

(5) If the accused fails without reasonable cause to comply with the said conditions, the Director-General shall file a fresh indictment against the accused on the same charges specified in the original indictment and proceed to prosecute the accused after the lapse of the period given for the accused to fulfil such conditions.

Appeals

68. (1) Where proceedings are instituted in the High Court by an indictment signed by the Director-General, the Director-General shall have the right to appeal against a judgment, order or sentence of such High Court in all cases in which the Attorney-General would have had the right to appeal against such judgment, order or sentence had an indictment for such offence been presented to such Court by the Attorney-General.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, where proceedings are instituted in the Magistrate's Court by a charge sheet signed by the Director-General, the Director-General shall have the right to appeal against a judgment, order or sentence of such Magistrate's Court.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, an officer of the Commission authorized by the Commission, the Attorney-General upon a request by the Commission or any other Attorney-at-Law specially authorized by the Commission shall be entitled to—

- (a) conduct appeals in respect of offences under this Act; and
- (b) appear on behalf of the Commission in the appeals of any other litigation which may have a bearing on the Commission:

Provided that, where the Commission has requested the Attorney-General to conduct any appeal or appear on behalf of the Commission in the appeals of any other litigation, in the absence of the Attorney-General, an officer of the Commission authorized by the Commission is entitled to conduct such appeal or appear on behalf of the Commission:

Provided further, where an officer of the Commission authorized by the Commission is conducting an appeal or appearing on behalf of the Commission, the Attorney-General may assist such officer.

69. (1) The Commission may prior to or during an investigation or after the conclusion of an investigation, during prosecution, in an appeal or in any issue relevant to the subject matter of such investigation solicit, receive and consider the observations, views, opinions, advise or comments of the Attorney-General.

Requesting the assistance of the Attorney-General

(2) The Commission may request the opinion of the Attorney-General in any matter relating to the discharge of its powers and functions under this Act.

(3) It shall be lawful for the Attorney-General to render such assistance as requested by the Commission.

70. (1) During any stage of the investigation or at any time before the conclusion of the trial of a person charged with bribery under the provisions of Part III of this Act, the Commission may, with the view of obtaining at the trial the evidence of any person supposed to have been directly or indirectly concerned in or privy to the offence by writing under its hand authorize any Magistrate named therein not to charge or prosecute such person on condition of his making a full and true disclosure of the whole of the circumstances within his knowledge relating to the offence and to every other person concerned whether as principal or as abettor in the commission thereof.

Not to charge or prosecute accomplices

(2) The Magistrate shall record, in the manner specified in the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979, the evidence on oath of every person referred to in subsection (1) and transmit the record to the Commission.

(3) Every person referred to in subsection (1) shall be examined as a witness in the case.

(4) Such person if not on bail, shall be detained in custody until the termination of the trial.

(5) Where a person referred to in subsection (1) has willfully concealed anything essential or has given false evidence, he may be tried for the offence in respect of which he was charged with or for any other offence of which he appears to have been guilty in connection with the same matter.

(6) The statement made by a person referred to in subsection (1) may be given in evidence against him when he is tried as stated in subsection (5).

Deferred
Prosecution
Agreements

71. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, where the offence committed falls under sections 106 and 108 of this Act, the Commission may, having due regard to the facts specified in subsection (2), and subject to one or more conditions referred to in subsection (3), enter into an agreement with any person referred to in subsection (8) of this section alleged to have committed an offence under such sections to suspend and defer the Criminal Proceedings against such person for a period not less than five years and not exceeding ten years.

(2) Where the Commission agrees to suspend or defer the criminal proceedings under subsection (1), it shall pay due regard to-

(a) the state policy on prevention of bribery and corruption;

(b) the national interest and public interest;

- (c) views of the victims of the offence, if any; and
- (d) the representations that may be made by the accused person or on his behalf by his Attorney-at-Law.

(3) Where the Commission agrees in terms of subsection (1) to suspend or defer the criminal proceedings against any person alleged to have committed an offence under this Act, the Commission shall prefer an application to the High Court, to obtain the sanction of such Court for the imposition of one or more of the following conditions to be fulfilled within a stipulated period, on such person as consideration for the suspension and deferment of the criminal proceedings against such person –

- (a) to publicly express remorse and apology before the High Court, using a text issued by the Commission;
- (b) to provide reparation to victims of the offence, as specified by the Commission;
- (c) to publicly undertake that such person refrains from committing an offence under this Act; or
- (d) to pay as compensation to the State the full amount relating to the offence of which twenty five per centum shall be credited to the Fund of the Commission.

(4) (a) The High Court may upon consideration of the application made by the Commission under subsection (3), and upon being satisfied that the agreement is in the interest of justice and the terms of the agreement are fair, reasonable and proportionate and approve such agreement and notify such person of the agreement.

(b) The agreement shall come into effect on the date on which the agreement is approved by the High Court.

(5) If such person fulfills the conditions imposed under subsection (3) during the period stipulated in the agreement for fulfilling such conditions, the Commission shall not proceed against such person in respect of the offence alleged to have been committed.

(6) If the person fails without valid excuse to comply with such conditions, the Commission shall upon making an application to the High Court, commence criminal proceedings against such person upon indictment.

(7) At the expiration of the period stipulated in the agreement, the Director-General shall, having informed and obtained the permission from the High Court shall discontinue the proceedings against such person.

(8) Where the person referred to in this section is a body corporate, an agreement under this section shall be entered into between the Director-General and such body corporate.

General power 72. The Commission may take any other appropriate steps not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act to achieve the objectives of this Act and carry out the powers and functions vested in the Commission under this Act or any other written law.

CHAPTER V

PROTECTION OF INFORMERS, WHISTLEBLOWERS, WITNESSES, AND OTHER PERSONS ASSISTING THE COMMISSION

Protection of informers of the Commission 73. (1) Where the Commission confidentially receives information to the effect that an offence under this Act has been committed or suspected to have been committed or is likely to be committed, such information and the identity of the informer shall not be revealed and the informer and the matters relating to such information shall not be disclosed in any proceedings before any court, tribunal, or other authority.

(2) Where any record, written or electronic, which is given in evidence or liable for inspection in any civil, criminal or other proceedings, contains an entry relating to the informer or the information given by the informer, the relevant court, tribunal, or other authority shall cause the parts in such record relating to the informer or the information given, to be concealed from view so as to protect the identity of such informer.

(3) If on a trial for any offence under this Act, the court, after full inquiry into the case, is of the opinion that the informer willfully made in his complaint a material statement which he knew to be false or did not believe to be true, or if in any other proceedings the court is of the opinion that justice cannot be fully administered between the parties thereto without the discovery of the informer, the court may require the production of the original complaint, if in writing, and permit inquiry and require full disclosure concerning the informer.

(4) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1), commits an offence and on conviction by the High Court be liable to a fine of one hundred thousand rupees or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(5) Where a person-

- (a) provides information to the Commission or any officer of the Commission or to any other law enforcement authority that a person, public official, a body corporate or unincorporate, public or private sector entity will commit or is committing or has committed or is likely to commit an offence under this Act; and

- (b) at the time such information is provided, believes on reasonable grounds that such information is true and is of such a nature as to warrant an investigation under this Act, such person shall not be subject to civil or criminal liability as a result of providing such information.

(6) An informer shall not be subject to adverse conditions of employment, reprisal, coercion, intimidation, retaliation, harassment, any injury to his person, or threatening or any of the foregoing for providing such information. Where an information is provided under section 74 by a whistleblower, no disciplinary action shall be taken against him for providing such information.

(7) Despite any prohibition of or restriction on the disclosure of information under any other law, contract, oath or practice, a whistleblower shall not be subject to detrimental action on account of having provided information under subsection (1) of section 74 or subsection (5) of this section.

(8) Any provision in a contract of service or other agreement between an employer and an employee is void in so far as it—

- (a) purports to exclude any provision of this Act, including an agreement to refrain from instituting or continuing any proceedings under this Act or any proceedings for breach of contract; or

- (b) purports to preclude the employee or has the effect of discouraging the employee from providing information.

(9) For the purposes of subsection (6) it shall be presumed until the contrary is proved that the adverse conditions of employment, reprisal, coercion, intimidation, retaliation, harassment, any injury to his person, or threatening or any of the foregoing has occurred.

(10) A whistleblower shall assist the Commission in any investigation which the Commission may make in relation to the information provided by him.

74. (1) Where a public official or an employee of a private sector entity-

Protection of whistleblowers

- (a) provides information to his superior officer that an offence under this Act has been committed or is being committed or is likely to be committed in or in connection with the public institution or the private sector entity or any person, as the case may be, in which he is employed; and
- (b) at the time such person provides information he believes on reasonable grounds that the information he provides is true and is of such a nature as to warrant an investigation under this Act, such public official or the employee of a private sector entity (hereinafter referred to as a “whistleblower”) shall not be subject to any civil or criminal liability as a result of providing such information.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this section commits an offence under this Act and on conviction by the High Court be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding seven years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Safety of persons assisting the Commission

75. (1) If it appears to the Commission that, the safety of a person who assist the Commission is adversely affected or such person or any other person may be subject to intimidation, harassment, injury or threat, the Commission may make such arrangements as are necessary –

(a) to provide physical safety to such person; or

(b) to protect such person or any other person from intimidation, harassment, injury or threat.

(2) In this section, ‘a person who is assisting the Commission’ means –

(a) an informer in terms of section 73 of this Act;

(b) a witness;

(c) a person who has appeared, is appearing or is to appear before the Commission to give evidence or to produce a document or any other thing in an inquiry or investigation conducted or to be conducted or any other measure taken or to be taken by the Commission under this Act;

(d) a person who has produced or proposes to produce a document or any other thing to the Commission in any inquiry or investigation conducted or to be conducted or any other measure taken or to be taken by the Commission under this Act; or

(e) a person who has assisted, is assisting, or is to assist the Commission in any other manner in an inquiry or investigation conducted or to be conducted or any other measure taken or to be taken by the Commission under this Act.

(3) Any such arrangement referred to in subsection (1) may involve any one of the following:–

- (a) issuing directions to the Inspector-General of Police or any public authority or any public official—
 - (i) to provide any protection referred to in subsection (1);
 - (ii) to provide personnel assistance or facilities or both, to assist in providing such protection; or
 - (iii) to otherwise assist in the provision of such protection;
- (b) making orders applying to a specified person for the purpose of protecting the physical safety of a person referred to in subsection (1) or of protecting such person from intimidation or harassment. Such an order is not limited to directions of a kind referred to in paragraph (a).

(4) It shall be the duty of the Inspector-General of Police, or such public authority or public official, to comply with any such direction given by the Commission as far as reasonably possible.

(5) Any person who contravenes an order made, to be applicable to a specified person under paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of this section without a reasonable excuse, commits an offence and shall on conviction by the High Court be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding seven years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

76. (1) A person shall, in respect of any statement made, information or answer given, or any document or any other thing produced, to or before the Commission not be liable to any action, prosecution or other proceeding, civil or criminal, in any court.

Immunity to witnesses

(2) No evidence of a statement made or answer or information given, by any person, to or before the Commission shall be admissible against such person in any action, prosecution or other proceeding civil or criminal, in any court:

Provided that, nothing in the preceding provisions of this section shall –

- (i) abridge or affect, or be deemed or construed to abridge or affect the liability of any person to any action, prosecution or penalty for any offence under Chapter XI of the Penal Code (Chapter 19) read with section 119 of this Act or for an offence under this Act;
- (ii) prohibit or be deemed or construed to prohibit the publication or disclosure of the name, or of the statement or of any part of the statement of any person for the purposes of any such action or prosecution; or
- (iii) affect the admissibility of any statement admissible under section 147.

Protection of witnesses and persons assisting the Commission and providing legal representation where necessary

77. The Commission shall have the power to provide legal representation to any informer, whistleblower or witness during an investigation, including inquiries at Magistrate’s Court, without prejudice to such investigations and at a trial in the High Court into an alleged offence committed against such whistleblower or witness in terms of sections 73, 74 and 75 of this Act.

Protection of victims’ rights

78. Nothing contained in this Act shall prejudice the rights of victims and witnesses ensured under the provisions of the Assistance to and Protection of Victims of Crime and Witnesses Act, No. 4 of 2015.

PART II

DECLARATION OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

Objects of this Part

79. Subject to section 2 of this Act, the objects of this Part shall be to –

Provided however, where paragraphs (a) and (b) do not apply, the law of the country or territory in relation to which the foreign public official is a foreign public official so far as that law is contained in—

- (i) any written Constitution, or any provision made by or under legislation, applicable to the country or territory concerned; or
- (ii) any judicial decision which is so applicable and is evidenced in published written sources.

106. (1) Any person who, in the course of any economic, financial or commercial activity, offers, directly or indirectly, a gratification on behalf of himself or another person to any employee in any capacity or a director in a private sector entity, in order to commit any act or refrain from committing any act in breach of his duties, commits an offence of bribery under this Act and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or to a term of rigorous imprisonment not exceeding seven years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Bribery in the private sector

(2) An employee in any capacity or a director in a private sector entity, in the course of economic, financial or commercial activities, solicits or accepts, directly or indirectly an advantage, for himself or for another person, in order to act or refrain from doing any act in breach of the duties of such employee or director, commits an offence of bribery under this Act and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or to a term of rigorous imprisonment not exceeding seven years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

107. (1) Where a public authority in which a public official is a member, director, or employee proposes to deal with a person, company, partnership or other undertaking in which that public official or a relative or associate of such public official has a direct or indirect interest which interest is within his knowledge of that public official shall forthwith disclose to that authority the nature of such interest in the manner as may be prescribed by regulations.

Failure to declare conflicts of interest

(2) Where a public official or a relative or associate of such public official has a personal interest in a decision which a public authority is to take regarding a person, company, partnership or other undertaking, that public official shall not vote or take part in any proceedings of that public authority relating to such decision.

(3) Any public official who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and shall on conviction by the High Court be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or to a term of rigorous imprisonment not exceeding seven years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(4) The Commission shall specify by way of rules the handling and management of conflict of interest of public officials.

Offences relating to sporting events

108. (1) Any person who, directly or indirectly accepts or agrees or offers to accept any gratification from any other person, whether for the benefit of himself or for the benefit of that other person or of another person-

(a) in return for-

- (i) engaging in any act which constitutes a threat to or undermines the integrity of any sporting event, including, in any way, influencing the run of play or the outcome of a sporting event; or
- (ii) not reporting the act contemplated in this section to the managing director, chief executive officer or to any other person holding a similar post in the sporting body or regulatory authority concerned or to the nearest police station; or

(b) as a reward for acting as contemplated in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a),

commits an offence and shall on conviction by the High Court be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or to a term of rigorous imprisonment not exceeding seven years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) Any person who, directly or indirectly gives or agrees or offers to give to any other person any gratification, whether for the benefit of that other person or for the benefit of another person-

(a) in return for-

(ii) not reporting the act contemplated in this section to the managing director, chief executive officer or to any other person holding a similar post in the sporting body or regulatory authority concerned or to such person's nearest police station; or

(b) as a reward for acting as contemplated in paragraph (a),

commits an offence and shall on conviction by the High Court be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or to a term of rigorous imprisonment not exceeding seven years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(3) Any person who directly or indirectly carries into effect any scheme which constitutes a threat to or undermines the integrity of any sporting event, including, in any way, influencing the run of play or the outcome of a sporting event, commits an offence and shall on conviction by the High Court be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or to a term of rigorous imprisonment not exceeding seven years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this section, the offences of Chapter 1 of Part II of the Prevention of Offences relating to Sports Act, No. 24 of 2019, shall have the same meaning as in the respective sections and shall carry the same punishment as specified in the respective sections.

Accumulation of wealth by an offence under this Act

109. (1) Where a person has or had acquired any property, and such property –

- (a) being money, which cannot be or could not have been –
 - (i) part of such person's known income or receipts; or
 - (ii) money to which any part of his known receipts has or had been converted; or
- (b) being property other than money, which cannot be or could not have been –
 - (i) property acquired using any part of such person's known income;
 - (ii) property which is or was part of such person's known receipts; or

- (iii) property to which any part of such person's known receipts has or had been converted,

then, for the purposes of any prosecution under this section, it shall be deemed, until the contrary is proved by such person, that such property is or was property which such person has or had acquired by the commission of any of the offences under this Chapter of this Act or to which such person has or had converted any property acquired by committing an offence under this Act.

(2) In subsection (1) "income" does not include income from proceeds of an offence under this Act, and "receipts" do not include receipts from proceeds of an offence under this Act.

(3) A person who is or had been the owner of any property which is deemed under subsection (1) to be property which such person has or had acquired by committing an offence under this Act or to which such person has or had converted any property acquired by such person by committing any offence under this Act, commits an offence and shall on conviction by the High Court be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees and to a term of rigorous imprisonment not exceeding seven years:

Provided that, where such property is or was money deposited to the credit of such person's account in any bank and such person satisfies the court that such deposit has or had been made by any other person without such person's consent or knowledge, such person shall not be considered as a person who commits or who has committed an offence under the preceding provisions of this subsection.

(4) No prosecution for an offence under this section shall be instituted against any person unless the Commission has given such person an opportunity to show cause as to why such person should not be prosecuted for such offence and where such person has failed to show cause as such or the cause shown by such person is unsatisfactory in the opinion of such Commission a prosecution shall then be instituted against such person under this section.

(5) For the purposes of this section, where a spouse or an unmarried child under the age of eighteen years of a person has or had acquired any property movable or immovable on or after the date of commencement of this Act, it shall be presumed until the contrary is proved that such property was acquired by such person aforesaid and not by such spouse or unmarried child, as the case may be.

(6) (a) In any prosecution for an offence under this section, a certificate from the Chief Valuer with regard to the value of any immovable property or the cost of construction of any building on such property shall be sufficient proof of such value and such cost of construction unless and until the contrary is proved.

(b) In this subsection, “Chief Valuer” means the Chief Valuer of the Government, and includes any Senior Assistant Valuer, or Assistant Valuer of the Government Valuation Department.

(7) For the purpose of this section “a person” shall mean any person whomsoever, whether or not such person can be shown to have been concerned with any act referred to in this Chapter or whether or not he is a public official within the meaning of this Act.

(8) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other provision of this Part, where a court convicts a person of an offence under this Part, the court may in lieu of imposing a penalty or fine, make order that any movable or immovable property found to have been acquired by bribery or by the proceeds of bribery, be forfeited to the State free from all encumbrances:

Provided however, that, in determining whether an order of forfeiture should be made, the court shall be entitled to take into consideration whether such an order is likely to prejudice the rights of a bona fide purchaser for value or any other person who has acquired, for value a bona fide interest in such property.

(9) An order made under subsection (8) shall take effect—

- (a) where an appeal has been made to the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court against the order of forfeiture, upon the determination of such appeal confirming or upholding the order of forfeiture; or
- (b) where no appeal has been preferred to the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court against the order of forfeiture, after the expiration of the period within which an appeal may be preferred to the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court against such order.

(10) A person, who conceals or retains proceeds or any part thereof of an offence committed under this Act, knowing that property is the result of proceeds of an offence under this Act shall commit an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a rigorous imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years or to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or to both such fine and imprisonment:

Provided that, a person conceals or retains proceeds or any part thereof whether or not he conceals or retains such proceeds directly or indirectly through intermediaries or for his own benefit or for the benefit of another or of an entity.

Gratification

110. (1) A person offers a gratification if he or any other person acting with his knowledge or consent directly or indirectly gives, affords or holds out, or agrees, undertakes or promises to give, afford or hold out, any gratification to or for the benefit of or in trust for any other person.

(2) A person solicits a gratification if he, or any other person acting with his knowledge or consent, directly or indirectly demands, invites, asks for, or indicates willingness to receive, any gratification, whether for the first-mentioned person or for any other person.

(3) A person accepts a gratification if he, or any other person acting with his knowledge or consent, directly or indirectly takes, receives or obtains, or agrees to take, receive or obtain any gratification, whether for the first-mentioned person or for any other person.

(4) Any person who offers, solicits or accepts a gratification which is an offence under this Act shall, if such offer, solicitation or acceptance was made outside Sri Lanka, be deemed to have committed such offence within Sri Lanka, and accordingly the High Court holden in Colombo shall have jurisdiction to try such offence notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law.

Corruption

111. Any public official who, with intent or knowledge to cause wrongful or unlawful loss to the Government, or to confer a wrongful or unlawful benefit, favour or advantage on himself or on any other person, or with intent or knowledge, that any wrongful or unlawful loss will be caused to any person or to the Government, or that any wrongful or unlawful benefit, favour or advantage will be conferred on any person-

- (a) does, or forbears to do, any act by virtue of his office as a public official or by use of such office with or without any power therefor vested with such officer;
- (b) induces any other public official to perform, or refrain from performing, any act by virtue of his office as a public official;
- (c) uses any information coming to his knowledge by virtue of his office as a public official;
- (d) participates in the making of any decision by virtue of his office as a public official; or
- (e) induces any other person, by the use, whether directly or indirectly, of his office as such public official to perform, or refrain from performing any act, commits the offence of corruption and shall upon trial and conviction by a High Court or upon summary trial and conviction by a Magistrate be liable to rigorous imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years or to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or to both such imprisonment and fine.

112. (1) Where any person commits an offence under this Act, which amounts to an unlawful activity within the meaning of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, No. 5 of 2006, such person may be charged for an offence under that Act in addition to an offence under this Act.

An offender under this Act, may be charged with an offence under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act

(2) The provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, No. 5 of 2006 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the inquiries, investigations and proceedings respect of such offence under that Act and any reference in the said Act to the Assistant Superintendent of Police or any other police officer shall be read and construed as a reference to an officer designated by the Commission under this Act.

Acceptance of gratification without power

113. (1) Where in any proceedings against any person for any offence under this Act, it is proved that such person solicited or accepted any gratification, having grounds to believe or suspect that the gratification was offered in consideration of such person's doing or forbearing to do any act referred to in that section, such person commits an offence under that section notwithstanding that such person did not actually have the power, right or opportunity so to do or forbear or that such person accepted the gratification without intending so to do or forbear or that such person did not in fact so do or forbear.

(2) Where in any proceedings against any person for an offence under section 111 of this Act, it is proved that such person intended to cause wrongful or unlawful loss to the Government, or to confer a wrongful or unlawful benefit, favour or advantage on such person or any other person, or had knowledge, that any wrongful or unlawful loss will be caused to any person or to the Government, or that any wrongful or unlawful benefit, favour or advantage will be conferred on any person by such person's doing or forbearing to do any act referred to in that section, such person commits an offence under that section notwithstanding that such person did not actually have the power, right or opportunity so to do or forbear or that such person did not in fact so do or forbear.

114. (1) Where a court convicts any person for an offence committed by the offer or acceptance of any gratification in contravention of any provision of this Act, then, if that gratification is a sum of money or if the value of that gratification can be assessed, the court shall, in addition to imposing on that person any other punishment, order him to pay as a penalty, within such time as may be specified in the order, a sum which is equal to the amount of that gratification or is, in the opinion of the court, the value of that gratification.

Additional penalties

(2) Where the High Court convicts any person for committing an offence under section 109 it shall, in addition to any other penalty that it is required to impose under this Act, impose a fine of not less than the amount which such Court has found, to have been acquired by bribery or by the proceeds of bribery or to have converted to property by bribery, and shall not exceed three times such amount.

(3) A fine or a penalty imposed by a court on any person for the commission of any offence under this Act may be recovered as if the order imposing the fine or the penalty were a decree entered by District Court in favour of the State and against that person, where the fine or penalty exceeds one million rupees and the person charged with such fine or penalty fails to pay such fine or penalty.

(4) Where the person liable to pay the fine or penalty referred to in the preceding provisions of this section was a public official on the date of commission of the offence for which the fine or penalty was imposed, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, any movable or immovable property acquired after the said date by the spouse of, or a son or daughter maintained by such person shall, in addition to the movable and immovable property of such person, be liable to be seized and sold for the recovery of the amount of such fine or penalty, if the property so acquired—

- (a) was purchased by such spouse, son or daughter;
- (b) was purchased in the name of such spouse, son or daughter by the person liable to pay such fine or penalty;
- (c) was acquired by such spouse, son or daughter by purchase, gift or otherwise from the person who offered the gratification for the acceptance of which the person liable to pay such fine or penalty became so liable; or
- (d) was acquired by testate or intestate succession from the person liable to pay such fine or penalty.

(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other provision of this Act, where a court convicts a person, the court may, for any offence under this Act, make order that any movable or immovable property found to have been acquired by the commission of such offence or by the proceeds of such offence, be forfeited to the State free from all encumbrances:

Provided however that, in determining whether an order of forfeiture should be made, the court shall be entitled to take into consideration whether such an order is likely to prejudice the rights of a bona fide purchaser for value or any other person who has acquired for value, a bona fide interest in such property.

(6) An order made under subsection (5) shall take effect –

- (a) where an appeal has been made to the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court against the order of forfeiture, upon the determination of such appeal confirming or upholding the order of forfeiture; or
- (b) where no appeal has been preferred to the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court against the order of forfeiture, after the expiration of the period within which an appeal may be preferred to the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court, against such order.

(7) Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Chapter of this Part, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in subsections (7) and (8) of section 303 of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979, by reason of such conviction or finding-

- (a) such person shall become incapable of being-
 - (i) registered as an elector or of voting at any election for a period of seven years from the date of such conviction or finding under Parliamentary Elections Act, No. 1 of 1981 and Presidential Elections Act, No. 15 of 1981; or for a period of five years under Provincial Councils Elections Act, No. 2 of 1988, or the Local Authorities Elections Ordinance (Chapter 262), or

- (ii) elected or appointed as a Member of Parliament or as a member of a local authority or a Provincial Council from the date of such conviction or finding and, if at that date such person has been elected or appointed as a Member of Parliament or member of a local authority, or of a Provincial Council such person's election or appointment as such member shall be vacated from that date;
- (b) such person shall be disqualified for life from being employed as a public official and from being elected or appointed to a scheduled institution or to the governing body of a scheduled institution;
- (c) such person shall, if he is a member of a scheduled institution or of the governing body of a scheduled institution, cease to be a member of either of such institutions from the date of such conviction or finding; and
- (d) such person shall, if he is a public official, cease to be a public official from the date of such conviction or finding and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, be deemed to have been dismissed on that date by the authority empowered by law to dismiss him.

Non conviction
based forfeiture
of property

115. (1) The High Court shall, on an application made by the Director-General or any officer authorized by the Commission within a reasonable period grant a non conviction based forfeiture order in respect of any property within the jurisdiction of such court where the court is satisfied prima facie on the balance of probabilities that such property is or such property represents property obtained through any of the offences committed under this Act or property intended to be used in committing any of the offences under this Act.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), to be satisfied that a property is subject to the provision of subsection (1), it is not necessary to show that-

- (a) the property was derived directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, from the commission of a particular offence under this Act; or
- (b) any person has been prosecuted or convicted in relation to such an offence, but only that it is the proceeds from any offence under this Act or it was used or intended to be used to commit an offence under this Act.

(3) An application for forfeiture may be made in respect of property into which original proceeds of an offence under this Act have been converted either by sale or otherwise.

(4) The Director-General shall give notice in writing regarding an application made under subsection (1) to any person who claims an interest in such property which is the subject matter of such application or to any person who is known to have an interest in such property or where the Director-General reasonably believes that a person may have an interest in such property, to such person not less than thirty days of making such application:

Provided however, the Director-General may dispense with the notice if that person has absconded from the proceedings.

(5) Any person who claims an interest in a property which is the subject matter of the application made under subsection (1), may appear and adduce evidence at the hearing of such application.

(6) The Court may, at any time before a decision is made on the application made under subsection (1), order the Director-General to publish a notice of such application in a daily news paper circulating in the island in Sinhala, Tamil and English languages, for the benefit of any person who, in the opinion of the court, appears to have any interest in such application.

(7) Where a person claiming an interest in any property which is the subject matter of any application made under subsection (1), satisfies the court that such person has acquired—

- (a) the interest in such property before any offence relating to such property under this Act has been committed; or
- (b) the interest for a fair value after any offence relating to such property under this Act was committed but did not know or could not reasonably have known before obtaining such interest that the property was the proceeds of any offence committed under this Act, the court may make such order regarding such interest declaring that the forfeiture order shall not affect such interest to such extent or in such manner.

(8) The court may when it makes a forfeiture order under this section or any time thereafter, make any other order which the court may consider appropriate, including orders for and in respect of facilitating the transfer of such property.

(9) Any order made under this section shall not be affected by any decision of any criminal proceeding or of an investigation conducted to determine whether criminal proceedings shall be instituted or not, in respect of the property which is the subject matter of this application.

(10) The provisions of subsection (4) of section 114 relating to forfeiture order shall mutatis mutandis apply for forfeiture orders under this section.

116. Where a body of persons is convicted of an offence under this Act, then-

Offences by body of persons

- (a) if such body of persons is a body incorporate or unincorporate or a corporation, every director or officer or agent thereof; and
- (b) if such body of persons is a firm, every partner, shall be liable to a fine as specified for the respective offences:

Provided however, a director or an officer or agent of such body incorporate, unincorporate or of such corporation or partner of such firm shall not be deemed to be guilty of such offence if he proves that such offence was committed without his knowledge or that he used all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

117. For the purposes of this Part, a public official or an employee of a private sector entity shall include —

Employee shall include former employees, etc.

- (a) a former employee;
- (b) a person seconded to the public authority or private sector entity;
- (c) an individual who is engaged or contracted under a contract for services to do work for the public authority or private sector entity;
- (d) a person concerned in the management of the public authority or private sector entity (including a person who is a member of the board or governing body of the public authority or private sector entity);

- (e) a person who works for the public authority or private sector entity as a volunteer without reward or expectation of reward for that work; or
- (f) a trainee or an apprentice of the public authority or private sector entity.

CHAPTER II

PROCEDURAL OFFENCES

Contempt

118. (1) Every offence of contempt committed against or in disrespect of, the authority of the Commission shall be punishable by the Supreme Court as though it were an offence of contempt committed against, or in disrespect of the authority of such court, and the Supreme Court is hereby vested with jurisdiction to try every such offence.

(2) An act done or omitted to be done in relation to the Commission, whether in the presence of the Commission or otherwise, shall constitute an offence of contempt against, or in disrespect of the authority of the Commission, if such act would, if done or omitted to be done in relation to the Supreme Court, have constituted an offence of contempt against or in disrespect of the authority of such court.

(3) If any person-

- (a) fails to appear before the Commission without a cause reasonable enough in the opinion of the Commission, at the time and place mentioned in a summon served under this Act;
- (b) refuses to be sworn or affirmed or, having been duly sworn or affirmed, refuses or fails without a cause reasonable enough in the opinion of the Commission, to answer any question put to such person touching the matters being investigated by the Commission;

- (c) refuses or fails without a cause reasonable enough in the opinion of the Commission, to comply with the requirements of a notice or written order issued or made to such person by the Commission; or
- (d) upon whom a summons is served under this Act, refuses or fails without a cause reasonable enough in the opinion of the Commission, to produce and show to the Commission any document or other thing which is in such person's possession or control and which is in the opinion of the Commission necessary for arriving at the truth of the matters being investigated, such person commits the offence of contempt against or in disrespect of the authority of the Commission.

(4) For the purposes of this section, it shall not be deemed to be a reasonable cause for a person to refuse or fail to answer any question or to produce and show any document or other thing on the ground that the matter being investigated by the Commission is the same or substantially the same matter which is the subject of, or is likely to be the subject of an inquiry in any proceeding in any court or on the ground that the answer to such question or the production or showing of such document or other thing may directly or indirectly affect, or cause prejudice to such person in any other proceedings.

(5) Where a Commission determines that a person has committed any offence of contempt under subsection (2) or subsection (3) against or in disrespect of its authority, the Commission may cause the Director-General to transmit to the Supreme Court, a certificate setting out such determination, which certificate shall be signed by the Chairman of the Commission.

(6) In any proceeding for the punishment for an offence of contempt which the Supreme Court may think fit to take cognizance of as provided in this section, any document purporting to be a certificate signed and transmitted to the court under subsection (5) shall—

- (a) be received in evidence, and be deemed to be such a certificate without further proof unless the contrary is proved; and
- (b) be evidence that the determination set out in the certificate was made by the Commission and of the facts stated in the determination.

(7) In any proceedings taken as provided in this section for the punishment of any alleged offence of contempt against, or in disrespect of the authority of the Commission, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, no member of the Commission shall, except with such person's own consent, be summoned or examined as a witness.

False allegations

119. Every person who makes an allegation in any information or complaint made by him to the Commission under section 43 knowing such allegation to be false or having reason to believe that such allegation does not constitute an offence under this Act shall on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to both such fine and imprisonment and shall in addition, be liable to the payment to the person in respect of whom the allegation was made, of a sum of money as compensation as the court may think fit.

Contravening
Secrecy

120. Every person who acts in contravention of the duty imposed on him under subsections (1) and (2) of section 28 to maintain secrecy commits an offence and shall on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand rupees or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

121. Any person who –

Resisting or obstructing duties of Director-General or other officer

False statements, information, etc.

122. Any person who knowingly —

- (a) gives or causes to be given any false or misleading information relating to the commission of any offence under this Act or under any other law in relation to which an investigation discloses the commission of any offence by any person; or
- (b) gives or causes to be given to the Director- General or any other officer appointed to assist the Commission false or misleading information, commits an offence and shall on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Giving False
evidence

123. (1) The provisions of Chapter XI of the Penal Code (Chapter 19) shall apply in respect of any person who gives false evidence in any proceeding under this Act.

(2) Prior sanction of the Attorney-General, required to be obtained under section 135 of the Criminal Procedure Code, Act, No. 15 of 1979 shall not apply to any prosecution under this section.

Falsely pretend one to be an officer

124. Any person who falsely pretends that he is an officer or employee of the Commission or a person whose services are retained under section 27 or has any of the powers of such officer, employee or person under this Act or that he is able to influence such officer, employee or person to do or refrain from doing anything in connection with the duty of such officer, employee or person under this Act commits an offence and shall on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

125. (1) A person who directly or indirectly influences any member of the Commission, the Director-General, officer or employee of the Commission or a person whose services are retained under section 27 in the performance of such member's, the Director-General's or officer's or employee's or person's duty commits an offence and shall, upon conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate be liable to a fine of one hundred thousand rupees.

Obstructing
justice

(2) A person who directly or indirectly by words written or spoken or by any act threatens any member of the Commission, the Director-General or any officer or employee of the Commission or a person whose services are retained under section 27 with any injury to such member's, the Director-General's or any other officer's or employee's or person's body, mind or reputation in order to deter such member, Director-General, officer or employee or person from the performance of such member's, the Director-General's or any other officer's, employee's or the person's duty under this Act commits an offence and shall, upon conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees, and upon a second or subsequent conviction for an offence under this subsection shall, in addition to such fine, be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years.

(3) A person who causes injury to the body, mind or reputation of a member of the Commission, the Director General, any other officer or employee of the Commission or a person whose services are retained under section 27 in order to deter such member, Director-General, any other officer or employee of the Commission or a person whose services are retained under section 27 from the performance of their duty under this Act shall, upon conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine of not less than five hundred thousand rupees and not more than one million rupees or to rigorous imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years.
